

WARWICK
THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

The School of Life Sciences is proud to present

Supporting Women's Careers in Science

A free, national event open to all to consider and discuss

Inspirational stories

Unusual career paths

How to overcome challenges & pitfalls

The gender balance in leadership

10:00 Welcome from Professor Christine Ennew, Provost, University of Warwick

Transitions from academic research to publishing and industry

Dr Penny Bramwell, Government Advisor

Dr Katherine Banks, Associate Patent Attorney, Withers & Rogers

Dr Charlotte Evans, Technical Innovation Manager at the Agriculture & Horticulture Development Board

Dr Carolina Perdigoto, Associate Editor in Nature Communications

Unusual and dynamic career paths in science including international stories, career breaks and the work/life balance

Dr Zania Stamataki, Royal Society Dorothy Hodgkin Fellow, University of Birmingham

Dr Holly Bridge, Royal Society University Research Fellow, University of Birmingham

Dr Marta Polak, Wellcome Trust Research Fellow, University of Southampton

Dr Patricia Sanchez-Baracaldo, Royal Society University Research Fellow, University of Bristol

Career challenges and common behavioural traps women can fall into

Anne Wilson, Head of Student Careers, University of Warwick

16:30 - 18:30 Drinks Reception & Buffet

The Medical Teaching Centre
Gibbet Hill Campus
University of Warwick

4 July 2017

10am - 18:30pm

Please book at warwick.ac.uk/asevent

 Athena
SWAN
Bronze Award

GET IN TOUCH

School of Life Sciences, University of Warwick, Coventry, CV4 7AL, UK

+44 (0)24 7652 3526

B.Crealock-Ashurst.1@warwick.ac.uk

warwick.ac.uk/asevent

WarwickLifeSci
@SupportingWome2 #ASEvent2017

warwicklifesci